Product short description:

Our electric cables covered in 100% copper stand out for their elegance and extraordinary brightness, that pops right out of the copper covering.

The Red Copper finish is perfect for bright and elegant creations and for refined settings, classic or modern.

We recommend that installation be carried out by a qualified professional, particularly the grounding cable of the copper outer cover.

Product description:

UL: Currently none of our cables are UL listed. We are diligently working on getting them certified for the North American market and are excited to bring them to lighting and electrical manufacturers. All of our cables currently meet CE safety standards in Europe.
