Product short description:

This natural oat cotton jute and linen braided lighting cable is part of our Vertigo collection. This hypnotic and unique collection is inspired by the mesmerising artwork from the classic film of the same name by Alfred Hitchcock.

This is one for innovative artists, creatives and anyone else looking to make a bold statement with their interior design choices. This natural fabric covered flex is loved by customers designing unique and exciting pendant lighting, table and wall lights.

The Vertigo collection retains all of the features of our cables that we are known for worldwide - they are flexible, strong and made to last - allowing you to make versatile bold choices with your designs.
