Product short description:

Brighten your space with the originality and practicality of the MAG-Y series wall lamp featuring a silicone socket and integrated switch. Create a cozy atmosphere in a living room reading corner or add charm to the bedroom with its minimalist design and remarkable flexibility. The lamp tilts up to 90° and rotates up to 315°.

The socket with an integrated switch offers instant lighting control, eliminating the need for a separate wall switch. Available in various colors, this wall light effortlessly adapts to your style, transforming the ambiance of residential and commercial spaces. The included cable, plug, and metal washer make installation simple, allowing you to place the lamp even in areas without existing electrical connections. Plus, if you need to relocate the lamp, its magnetic base allows for easy detachment and repositioning.
